

RNDC Selects Manhattan Active® Warehouse Management to Modernize its Supply Chain and Support its Rapid Growth

March 15, 2022 12:30 PM EDT

ATLANTA, March 15, 2022 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Manhattan Associates (NASDAQ: MANH) today announced that Republic National Distributing Company, one of the nation's leading wholesale beverage alcohol distributors, has selected Manhattan Active® Warehouse Management to run a supply chain network that is rapidly growing in size and sophistication.

In 2019, RNDC expanded its reach with its partnership with Young's Market Company and sales have remained strong throughout the pandemic. With this rapid growth, RNDC felt now was the perfect time to upgrade its warehouse management technology. The company selected the cloud-native, best-in-class Manhattan Active Warehouse Management solution and plans on aggressively rolling it out in its distribution centers across North America over the next 30 months.

"RNDC prides itself on having a state-of-the-art supply chain technology. Manhattan Active Warehouse Management, with its 'Always Current' approach, will give us continuous access to the latest WMS innovations and allow us to focus our full attention on providing outstanding customer service," said Steve Feldman, RNDC's executive vice president of operations.

Manhattan's next-gen warehouse management solution is capable of controlling fulfillment, labor, slotting and automation all from a single application. RNDC is especially interested in leveraging Manhattan's integrated Labor Management capabilities to inspire and motivate workers through gamification and behavioral science.

"We are thrilled that RNDC has selected Manhattan Active Warehouse Management," said Bob Howell, executive vice president, Americas at Manhattan Associates. "With its versionless approach and advanced scalability, Manhattan Active Warehouse Management will be the last WMS RNDC will ever have to buy."
