

We Pack Logistics Upgrades Technology Resources With Manhattan ILS(tm)

March 9, 2009 8:31 AM EDT

ATLANTA — March 9, 2009— Global supply chain optimization provider Manhattan Associates, Inc. (NASDAQ: MANH), today announced that We Pack Logistics, a third-party logistics provider, has achieved a successful go-live with Manhattan ILS™: Integrated Logistics Solutions, built on Microsoft® .NET, providing Manhattan's Billing Management, Labor Management, Transportation Lifecycle Management and Slotting Optimization solutions.

We Pack Logistics provides a full range of packaging, warehousing, distribution, transportation and multimodal services to Fortune 500 companies. In operation since 1984, We Pack Logistics operates 16 facilities throughout Texas and North Carolina.

"We Pack Logistics chose to partner with Manhattan Associates to address the global demand for speed-to-market and accurate forecasting," said Holland Harper, general manager, We Pack Logistics. "We identified a need for a more robust platform to manage space, labor, and product mix. This technology upgrade will allow for real time inventory and improved interfacing with our customer's systems."

We Pack Logistics selected Manhattan ILS for its seamless integration with Microsoft Dynamics SL, transportation management system, point of sale capabilities and its proven track record in the third party logistics industry.

"By implementing Manhattan ILS, We Pack Logistics, and ultimately its customers will establish benchmarks for on-time deliveries, cash-to-cash cycle time, inventory turns and forecasting accuracy," says Jeff Mitchell, executive vice president, Americas, Manhattan Associates. "They are a leader in their market, have ambitious business goals, and are expanding their services to meet even more of their customers' needs."
