Success in new and existing markets across Asia Pacific pay off with second regional accolade this year

SINGAPORE and ATLANTA — July 29, 2009— Leading consulting company Frost & Sullivan has named Manhattan Associates 'Warehouse Management Systems Provider of the Year in Asia Pacific for 2009'. The announcement was made at The Frost & Sullivan Asia Pacific Transportation & Logistics Awards banquet. The event is held annually to recognise outstanding performance by companies in the transportation & logistics industry in Asia Pacific.

The accolade is further recognition of the progress Manhattan Associates has made in the region over recent years having been declared 'Asia's leading WMS supplier' by leading industry analyst firm ARC Advisory Group in May this year.

Short-listed companies are evaluated based on actual market performance indicators including revenue growth, market share and growth in market share, leadership in product innovation, breadth of products and solutions, major customer acquisitions, and business and market strategy. Benchmarked against the highest standards of measurement criteria, the recipients of the awards represent the best-in-class in Asia Pacific.

Mr. Kavan Mukhtyar, Partner at Frost & Sullivan, said, "The awards seek to recognise companies for demonstrating outstanding achievement and superior performance."

Jeff Baum, Manhattan Associates' senior vice president, International (Asia Pacific), commented. "We are proud of the commitment that our employees, partners and customers have all shown in helping us to be successful in the Asia Pacific region and we have them to thank for winning this prestigious award. Over the last five years, we've made significant investments in building our team and partner network, localising our solutions and ensuring customers are successful with our distribution management applications across this very diverse region. With 150 associates, a growing partner community and 200 distribution sites managed by our solutions, we offer a scale advantage for our global and local customers across the region. We look forward to continuing to work closely with existing clients and welcoming new ones as we look to expand our customer community in the future and help optimise their supply chains."
