With offices in nine countries, Manhattan Associates is the Supply Chain Commerce solutions technology behind many of the world's top global brands. Manhattan has invested more than $300 million in research and development, and has developed a world class operations center in Bangalore, India, providing the company with product innovation, professional services and support for its customers around the world.

"Our operations in India have grown from a small nucleus of team members in 2002 to a talented group of well over 1000 today. Over the last decade we've used a measured growth strategy that mirrors our operations model in the United States," said Capel.

"We have always considered our operations in India to be a competitive advantage."

Additional UIBS speakers include Her Excellency Nirupama Rao, the U.S. Ambassador to India; Consul General of India Ajit Kuma; and former U.S. Department of Commerce Deputy Assistant Secretary Ro Khanna.
