March 28, 2016 2:01 PM EDT

ATLANTA, March 28, 2016 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- For the fourth year in a row, Manhattan Associates, Inc. (NASDAQ:MANH) has been named one of Atlanta's Top Places to Work by the Atlanta Journal-Constitution (AJC). The annual survey, administered by the AJC and WorkplaceDynamics, LLC, measures several aspects of workplace culture, including alignment, execution and connection.

"Being recognized as a Top Place to Work in Atlanta again is an incredible honor," said Terry Geraghty, senior vice president and chief human resources officer, Manhattan Associates. "Our employees are the single biggest driver of our sustained growth and we hope that by providing opportunities for career advancement, innovative wellness programs and industry-leading benefit packages, we continue to cultivate Manhattan's reputation as a great place to work."

Employees from hundreds of companies in the metro Atlanta area shared feedback on talent initiatives and corporate culture examples of excellence.

"To be a Top Workplace, organizations must meet our strict standards for organizational health. And who better to ask about work life than the people who live the culture every day—the employees," says Doug Claffey, CEO of WorkplaceDynamics. "Time and time again, our research has proven that what's most important to them is a strong belief in where the organization is headed, how it's going to get there, and the feeling that everyone is in it together."

The AJC will host www.topworkplaces.com, a website devoted to top workplaces in each region of the United States, on www.ajc.com and www.ajcjobs.com for the next 12 months.
