

Manhattan Associates Named a Leader in Gartner's Warehouse Management Systems Magic Quadrant for Ninth Consecutive Time

February 28, 2017 1:31 PM EST

ATLANTA, Feb. 28, 2017 (GLOBE NEWSWIRE) -- Manhattan Associates, Inc. (NASDAQ:MANH) today announced it has been recognized as a market leader in the Gartner, Inc. Magic Quadrant for Warehouse Management Systems. This is the ninth consecutive time Manhattan Associates has been named as a leader, with the company positioned the furthest across both axes of measurement: completeness of vision and ability to execute on that vision.

"We're honored to be included as a leader in this year's Gartner Magic Quadrant," said Brian Kinsella, vice president, product management, Manhattan Associates. "We believe our position reflects both our more than 25 years of focus and investment and our great partnership with our clients. Our customer base includes some of the most innovative logistics practitioners in the market, and we feel the opportunity to collaborate with them is a major factor in our quadrant position."

Over the past year, Manhattan introduced DM Mobile, a next-generation mobile/tablet application for Distribution Management and enhanced its warehouse management systems by converging capabilities commonly found separately in labor management systems and slotting optimization products. Manhattan's commitment to omni-channel retail and distribution center innovation is continuing in 2017, with technology that anticipates fulfillment automation opportunities, machine learning and a changing workforce.

Manhattan's innovation in the supply chain and omni-channel arena has led to a broad suite of market-leading supply chain solutions, including: Warehouse Management, Transportation Management, Labor Management, Distributed Order Management, Supply Chain Planning and Distribution Center Supplier Enablement.
